

Privacy Policy

REVOPOINT GLOBAL INC. (“we” or “Company”) deeply understands the importance of personal information to our users and will take corresponding security measures in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. We strive to protect our users’ personal information to keep it secure and under control.

- Announcement and Definition

This Policy applies to Revo Mirror. Before using this software, please carefully read and thoroughly understand this Policy and confirm that you have fully understood and agreed to this Policy before using relevant products or services. Your use of Revo Mirror shall be deemed as fully understanding and agreeing to this Policy.

- How We Collect and Use Your Personal Information

1. Upon using Revo Mirror, Wi-Fi connectivity is required to enable core functionality. During this process, the following network information may be obtained:

-IP Address: Utilized for establishing network connections and facilitating data transmission.

-Network Connection Status: Employed to assess network availability and connectivity.

Important Notice: This information is used exclusively for software functionality and will not be stored, analyzed, or used for other purposes.

2. Unless otherwise stated in a country-specific addendum, your Personal Information may be collected without your prior authorization or consent under the following circumstances:

- 1) Where it is necessary for national security and national defense security;
- 2) Where it is required to safeguard public security, public health, or major public interests;
- 3) Where it is necessary for the investigation, prosecution, adjudication, or enforcement of criminal matters;
- 4) Where it is necessary to protect your life, property, or other major lawful rights and interests, or those of another individual, and it is difficult to obtain your or their prior consent;
- 5) Where the personal Information has been voluntarily disclosed by you to the public;

- 6) Where the personal Information is collected from legally disclosed sources, such as lawful news reports or government disclosures;
- 7) Where the collection is necessary to enter into or perform a contract at your request;
- 8) Where it is necessary for legitimate news reporting;
- 9) Where it is necessary for academic or statistical research conducted by research institutions in the public interest, and where results are de-identified before being disclosed to the public;
- 10) Any other circumstances as permitted or required by applicable laws and regulations.

3. Permissions Required

1) Network Connection

To enable Wi-Fi connectivity features, Revo Mirror requires the following network permissions:

-Wi-Fi Access Permission: Required to establish connections to Wi-Fi networks. If this permission is not granted, network-related functionalities of the Software will not be available.

-Network State Permission: Used to detect and monitor the current network connection status, helping to ensure stable and efficient operation.

-Wi-Fi State Access Permission: Allows the Software to verify Wi-Fi connection status to ensure proper functionality.

● How We Store and Protect Your Personal Information

1. Network Information Storage Policy: We only temporarily store your network data (including IP address and Wi-Fi information) in memory during active connections. This data is never permanently saved to disk. All temporary network information is automatically cleared when you disconnect or close the software. Except for information essential for network connectivity, all data processing occurs on your local device. This ensures your personal information is not unnecessarily collected, stored, or transmitted.
2. In order to protect your information security, we have taken reasonable and feasible security protection measures in line with industry standards to protect your information from unauthorized access, public disclosure, use, modification, damage, or loss of your personal information.

3. We will take reasonable and feasible measures to store your personal information and try our best to avoid collecting irrelevant personal information. We will only keep your personal information for the period required to achieve the purpose stated in the Policy and the period required by applicable laws and regulations.

- Know Your Rights

We understand that privacy preferences vary among users. You can limit the collection, use, disclosure, or processing of your personal information by the following means:

1. You can choose to refuse to grant the Software access to network-related permissions (such as Wi-Fi or network state). However, doing so may prevent some network-dependent features from functioning properly.

- How We Update this Policy

- Our Policy may change from time to time. We will publish any changes on this page. By continuing to use Revopoint products or services after such changes are posted, you are deemed to have read, understood, and agreed to the updated Policy.
